“ coy was my friend in Jr. High school. I used to call him cold slaw. Used to piss him off. Later we would laugh about it. He made a nickname for me too which I won't reveal. I will miss coy and always remember him.

“ I moved to Salem in 1970. A new kid in town; I had no friends. Pretty soon four boys confronted me on the playground wanting to pick a fight. That's when Coy stepped in. I didn't even know him but they did and they took off running. That was Fourth Grade.

Coy, Brad Beasley and I were thick as thieves after that. He had a wild hair back then but he was always true blue.

I am sad to learn of Coy's passing and sorry to realize that 40 years has slipped by.

My deepest condolences to Coy's wife and children. He was a good guy.

“ Our sincere condolences to the entire Shaw family over the tragic sudden passing of Coy. He was everything to those who loved him the most... Everyone could always count on him & he never let anyone down. Hardworking to a fault, he was a kind, fun loving & sincere man -- not to forget ornery in only the best of ways. I will be lifting your entire family up in prayer and asking the Dear Lord to surround you in his loving embrace. May you hold dear all those precious memories you made with him and in time be able to shre them with laughter and a smile. I know he would want that.

“ There are so many memories! Laughing until tears ran, calling Coy to come change a flat tire or get my car started or just to aggravate. He was loved by so many and will be truly missed. All my love and prayers go to the family.
