Bob, as he was known to his family and friends, was a hardworking man. He started his career working for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company after many years of service and in 1993 he began working on Ft. Leonard Wood, MO. He enjoyed his work, especially his coworkers; many were like family.

Bob met the love of his life, Linda "Gale" Goodrich while having therapy in an aerobics class. Their love grew for each other and the two were united in marriage on July 22, 2000, in Philadelphia, Missouri.

In his spare time, Bob enjoyed watching sports; whether it was a good football game or the St. Louis Cardinals play. He also enjoyed being outdoors either going hunting or fishing. When Bob's children were young he enjoyed spending time with them, one of their greatest pastimes was fishing. Bob also enjoyed deer camp for many years and telling a hunting story always brought a smile to his face.

Bob is survived by his loving wife Linda "Gale" Lewis of the home; four children: Robert (Brenda) Lewis of Jackson MO, Mark (Christina) Lewis of Cape Girardeau, MO, James (Tonya) Lewis of Leopold, MO and Rebecca LaMar - Lewis of Cape Girardeau, MO; four step-children: Kerri (Antonio) Brown of Olympia, WA, Pam (Mathew) Posten of Grand Forks, ND, Carla (Marty) Posten of Waynesville, MO and Blake (Lisa) Posten of Grand Forks, ND; two sisters: Donna Richmond and Karen Cline both of Oklahoma; many grandchildren, great grandchildren and other relatives and friends.

“ Bob and I were classmates and friends at Central High School Cape Girardeau. We both joined the Marine Corps out of high school, he joined a month or so before I did and then we were stationed together at the Naval Air Station, Marine Air Detachment, Millington, TN for a number of months for training. Our assignments took us to different units in the Marine Corps. I lost track of him after that. I'm saddened to learn of his passing and send my sympathy to his friends and family. God Bless and Semper Fidelis.
