

Stacey Lynn (Johnson) Lee

October 31, 1970 - January 23, 2020

Stacey Lynn (Johnson) Lee was born on October 31, 1970, in Illinois to Eugene Johnson and Judy Clayton and passed away January 23, 2020, in Salem, Missouri at the age of forty-nine years.

Stacey grew up in Ironton, Missouri and attended school at South Iron High. She was blessed with one daughter, Jessie, whom she was very proud of and loved with all her heart. Following her years in school, Stacey worked for the Nursing Home in Belleview. She was working as a bartender in Ironton when she met her fiancé, Joe Noel. After moving to Salem, she started working as a waitress at the Spring Creek Cafe. She loved serving her customers and the many friendships she has made.

Stacey enjoyed spending time outdoors, she liked to go fishing and horseback riding. Her greatest passion was bowling and she bowled in several leagues. The Bowling Alley staff and other bowlers became a second family to her. Most of all, Stacey cherished her time spent with Joe, they were blessed with eight years of wonderful memories. Some of their fondest moments were going to see the Christmas lights at Silver Dollar City.

Stacey is survived by her fiancé Joe Noel of Salem, MO; daughter: Jessie Inman of Salem, MO; mother: Judy Clayton of Salem, MO; extended family and friends.

Preceding her in death were her father and brother.

Stacey was a believer and growing strong in her faith. She was known as a sweet and kind person who always wore a smile. She will be remembered as a loving mother, fiancé, daughter and friend.

Funeral Services for Stacey Lynn (Johnson) Lee were held Saturday, January 23, 2020 in the Wilson Mortuary Salem Chapel with Pastor Chris Hendrix officiating. The eulogy was shared by Aaron Steelman and several friends shared memories. Song selections played were "Jesus Take the Wheel" and "Drift Away". Arrangements were under the direction of Wilson Mortuary of Salem, Missouri.
