“ Copied from everloved.com site in order to preserve here:

"I promised you would never walk this path alone. We spent many an hour praying and discussing faith and death. You called I was there because you didn't want to disturb Rommel or anyone else because you did not want to be a burden on your family. Quite a few dark nights I sat and held you hand and did my best to comfort you. We talk about times passed and I tried to help as I could cause I knew you missed you Dad. You asked me how I found the strength in my faith and I tried to show you. You knew as the end neared; I too must face the disease that took you from us. I know all of your family are missing you terribly. Part of their lives as well as all who knew you will have a huge void now, so as you now rest among your heavenly family and the angels; just know your strength, your courage; your devotion will never be forgotten. I know your battle was long and hard fought filled with many hours of pain, but you never ever lost hope. Your desire to help everyone has now been fulfilled baby girl. You have left a legacy for all to follow. We grieve because we miss your beautiful smile, your willingness to always do good and to help. Go rest on high now for you have earned your place with our heavenly Father..!"

“ I worked with Andrea many years ago at Wal-Mart. We worked in different stores on a lot of different projects together. She was a hard worker, but somehow we always managed to laugh until our stomachs were sore. I will miss her wit, sense of humor, laugh and caring personality most of all. She was definitely one of a kind. My deepest condolences to her family. You all will be in my prayers.

Heaven gained an Angel with such a beautiful soul. She fought so hard and we often prayed for "the little things that meant so much to her." Loved her so much. It was an honor to have been able to be with her. Rommel, Renae, Carla, and Wellan and many family and friends gave her so much love and support and I know she loved you all do much. You are all in my thoughts and prayers for comfort knowing she's all healed and smiling that beautiful smile of hers! Love and Blessings to all, Linda Roos ❤️🙏🙌
