Tribute Wall

“ Bev "Boss" had a way of making people feel seen, no matter their age, background, or stage in life. She was proof that friendship doesn't come with an expiration date or an age limit. Some of my favorite memories of her are the little things that made her so uniquely Bev, especially those unforgettable peanut butter and jelly earrings that she wore with so much pride and humor. They were quirky, warm, and comforting, just like her. She had a spirit that could light up a room and a heart big enough to make me feel welcome. Bev taught me that real friendship is built on laughter, kindness, and simply showing up for one another. The world feels a little quieter without her in it, but the memories she gave me will stay bright for years to come.
