Carla spent many years working compassionately as a caregiver. She was currently employed at Salem Residential and previously worked for a nursing home in Rolla. Carla loved caring for the residents and considered them family. She worked hard to give them dignity and bring them happiness daily.

Carla was blessed with two wonderful children: Briana and Logan. She was very proud of them and their life accomplishments. Her grandchildren brought her great joy and she cherished spending time making memories with them. She liked to watch scary movies with her family and enjoyed reading Amish books.

Carla departed this life November 25, 2023, in Salem, Missouri, at the age of fifty years. Those left behind to treasure her memory include her two loving children: Briana Cummings of Salem, MO and Logan Parker and Kersten Reuter of Salem, MO; mother: Mary Bacon of Salem, MO; siblings: Ronald Bacon and wife Patty of Decatur, IL and Katrina Anderson and husband Stan of Salem, MO; grandchildren: Rowan, Naomi, and Aurora Cummings; as well as several nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and dear friends.

Preceding her in death, her father: James Bacon and infant brother: Lloyd Wayne Bacon.

Carla was one of a kind with a smile that could light up the room. She enjoyed life and laughed often. Her outspoken personality will forever be missed by those who loved her most.
