But never forget his love for you leaves you special memories that no one can steal. He loved you before you were born and always and you know that and that is all that is important.

“ Have a lot of fishing memories in past years. There was a lot of fishing trips that included eating them on the river banks with mom and dad. I remember him dropping a piece of fish in the sand, wiping it off and eating it. He said he wasn't gonna waste a piece of good fish. He loved fish. He may have been my half brother but he was still my brother.

“ Dave was genius on building cars. I had seen him build many cars over the years. He built my 50 Mercury which I am very proud of. It took me and him to take the doors off. Dave will be missed.
