“ Sweet Aunt Cynthia, you will be missed! So many memories funny, sad. You helped so many of your family and friends. You offered me your home when I was in a dark and sad time asking very little. You did have a few rules of course, however a few may of been broken with love!! One funny memory, you needed a watch dog and was offered from your brother Doyle or Aunt Lela their dog Barney (St. Bernard). Well I was the lucky one to ride in back seat to the city with big, slobbering Barney! Aunt Cynthia thought that was so funny!!! Love ya Billie, here for ya!

“ So sorry for the family's loss. Cynthia and my late sister, Maxine Butler were best friends during high school. No doubt they are together now and catching up. I have good memories of Cynthia visiting with Maxine at the store and our house. Again, so very sorry for your loss.

We are so sorry for your loss. You only have one mom and she is the one person who loves you unconditionally. She was always such a pistol! She will be missed. Love you and I know it sounds cliché, but if you need anything, please just say the word.
