

Darla Sue (Walters) Betts

November 24, 1963 - August 12, 2022

Darla Sue (Walters) Betts was born November 24, 1963 in Waynesville, Missouri to Dwight and Bernice Walters and departed this life August 12, 2022 in Columbia, Missouri at the age of fifty-eight years.

Darla grew up and attend school in Waynesville, Missouri. She was united in marriage to the love of her life, William “Bill” Betts, July 1, 1980 and to this union four daughters: Jessica, Tabitha, Billie, and Amanda.

Darla was a proud mother to her daughters and to many of their friends. She loved and cherished her grandchildren. Her greatest joy in life was being a wife to Bill, a mother to her daughters, and grandmother to her grandchildren. Darla was an excellent cook; her family will always remember her homemade rolls and fried chicken. She was very creative with her hands, whether it was painting or crafting.

Darla is survived by her loving husband Bill Betts of Waynesville, Missouri; daughters: Jessica Betts-Bouse of Farmington, MO, Tabitha Vaughn and husband Jeremy of Saint Augustine, FL, Billie Maldonado and husband Fernando of Waynesville, MO, and Amanda Betts and fiancé Ismael Rodriguez of Waynesville, MO; siblings: Denny Walters and wife Debbie of Camdenton, MO, Deana Harting and husband Kenny of Laquey, MO, and Dawn Decker and husband Darrell of Waynesville, MO; grandchildren: Amber, Abby, Ashton, Jonathan, Hayden, Pedro, Jordan, Reina, Skylynn, and Mateo; well as a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Preceding her in death, parents: Dwight and Bernice Walters; siblings: Deborah Perkins, Deanne Young, and Darren Walters; and grandson: Kayden Betts.

Darla will always be remembered for her beautiful smile, contagious laugh, and strong faith. She will be forever missed by those who knew and loved her.

“ My heart is broken to lose a beautiful soul and friend. I pray for peace and comfort to Bill and the girls. Our hearts bonded when we met years ago, and our laughs until we had tears too many to count. Heaven gained an Angel so spread those wings and fly Dar. You were one of a kind and we will meet again!
With all my heart,
Sam
