“ I so enjoyed Donna as we served together at His Place Soup Kitchen. She was a true blessing.

“ I had the privilege of working with Donna in Rolla when I was in my early twenties. She never pulled any punches with me & taught me so much. I was terrified of her when I first started but always felt I could trust her & knew she had everyone's best interest in mind. As I matured & began my teaching career I found myself looking back on her tough lessons often.

Be prompt

Work hard

Dont complain

She will be sorely missed. Prayers for all with a broken heart.

“ We are so very sorry for all of your family. My brother Bill Arts thought the world of Donna. I talked to him tonight, thru his sadness & tears. They were the best of friends for many, many years. Donna was always ready to pitch in & do anything needed. When I stayed at Bill's house, when he had his stroke, I had what I thought was a bad cold, Donna insisted on taking me to the ER, I had pneumonia.

My sister, Janet & her husband, Richard, myself & my significant other, Frank, always looked forward to their trips to Michigan. Also, meeting them at the flea market in Indiana.

I know how much Bill enjoyed her visits. She often took him something, he appreciated her taking him for walks & just being there for him.

Deepest Sympathy from all of Bill's family, Joyce Arts Oberg

“ Ms. Welch was a great teacher who encouraged independent thought. I don't know for sure, of course, but looking back I think she was the first feminist I knew (outside of my mama). She definitely influenced me and others to be someone who stood up for what we believed in. She will be missed!

“ My deepest condolences to the entire family. Ms. Welch was truly an amazing soul. I will always be grateful to her for giving me my love of reading and keeping the “good” books to the side for me. Even after I graduated I got lists every once in a while of books she thought I'd like. You will be missed! Fly high!

“ Ms. Welch, we were so happy when you moved in across the street. You made that little house so beautiful. You were always so thoughtful bringing us fresh picked blueberries, blackberries and homemade preserves. You were always such a great listener, neighbor and friend. I hope you are resting in peace with our Heavenly Father. God bless you. -The Skaggs Family
