“ I am just now learning of your dear Mother’s passing. This is Kathy D’Angelo, Edna babysat for our daughters, Mary Ellen and Marie, many years ago. We called her “ Eddie,” as she told us, that was her preferred name. Your Mom was the sweetest lady and our family truly considered Eddie family! Our daughters were flower girls when she married Butch. Eddie had a zest for life and always talked about her grown children and grandchildren. She truly loved her family! I spoke with your Mom about two years ago, she was always upbeat, smiling and laughing! Your Mom also had the most beautiful, sparkling blue eyes, that I will never forget. I’m just really sorry for your entire family, she meant the world to our family. Dr. Anthony, Kathleen, Mary Ellen and Marie D’Angelo

“ Edna’s absence is already very profound here at the house. She could be stubborn and as her caregiver, we definitely butted heads. But we had a lot of fun and laughs along the way. She was my mother in every sense other than blood, and was a huge part of my life.
