

Emanuel Lee Moore

April 2, 1950 - December 31, 2023

Emanuel Lee Moore, of Salem, Missouri was one of five children born to the late Tommie Lee Moore and Narvel Johnson Moore on April 2, 1950, in St. Louis, Missouri. He fell asleep in death on December 31, 2023, at the age of seventy-three years.

Emanuel grew up in St. Louis, Missouri. He attended Sumner High School where he was known for his well-arranged dress. In 1967 he married Wilhemina and from that union came two children Sabrina and Emanuel T. Moore. Emanuel worked at Hussman Refrigerator Corporation for many years and worked hard to provide for his family. In early 2000, Emanuel relocated to Salem, Missouri. He endeavored to create a better life for himself, both physically and spiritually. Shortly after relocating to Salem, he met the love of his life Pam Copeland and in 2003, they were united in marriage. Emanuel faced many personal challenges and worked hard to overcome them. Emanuel loved his Creator, Jehovah God. He enjoyed attending Christian meetings of Jehovah's Witnesses and studying the Bible. He was affectionately called "Bo" by his family members, and he loved to laugh and told jokes to get others to laugh as well. Emanuel was known for being generous and had a special place in the hearts of many.

Emanuel was preceded in death by his wife Pam Copeland. He leaves behind to cherish his precious memories, his son Emanuel T. Moore, his daughter

Sabrina and a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. His brother's, Herman Moore (Roberta) of St. Cloud, FL, Tyrone Moore of St. Louis, MO, and Kevin Moore (Georgia) of Houston, TX. His sister's, Teresa Moore Warrick (Randy) of St. Louis, MO, and Venee Moore Finley (William) of Flord, VA, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
