“ It is with great sadness to learn that Fred has passed. My deepest condolences go out to the entire Kramer family. I am so fortunate to have had the opportunity to spend time on the Kramer farm, in Maryland, and watch the magic of a truly incredible and beautiful family. Each one of you 5 girls are unique in your own extraordinary and beautiful way. That can only come from both nature and nurture. Clearly, Fred and Kathleen, who is an absolute gem, had so much love for each other and invested every ounce of their being in raising such an amazing family. I only wish everyone would be able to experience the love they had for each other and their family. I also wish that every child would be able to experience parents like Fred and Kathleen. I am sure each of you girls know that but when you are someone that didn't have that, to be with all of you was like a storybook in a very, very special way to me.

One of my favorite things was watching Fred when he was with his angels and the smile and love he had on his face while doing so. His laugh, when the girls would tease with him, filled the room with so much warmth and love. I used to dream that if I had a father, that was present, he would be a father like Fred. I only wish I could have told him that. Well, I am saying it now. Kathleen, Candy, Sherrie, Charlotte, Jody and Shelley, always remember how lucky you are to have had a husband and father like Fred. Keeping his legacy alive with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren is likely one of the greatest gifts you could give him. He deserves it. I am so happy that he had his precious family with him during his passing. Never doubt that he absolutely knew that he was loved immensely and was comforted and in peace when he went home, by having you by his side. God has a special place in heaven for a man like him. Never doubt that.

Thank you all for treating me as if I was part of your family and be able to experience what a real and healthy family dynamic should feel like. I truly mean that. Some of the best times in my life were spent with you all. I feel blessed for those times and will forever cherish those memories.

Know Fred is in a better place now and lived a long life filled with great joy, love and many blessings. Each of you and your families will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers and I pray that God Bless you and keep you and give you peace!

With the greatest of sincerity and love for each of you,
