

Glenna "Lynn" Alice (Parker) Fuhrmann

December 27, 1942 - March 17, 2026

Glenna Alice (Parker) Fuhrmann was born on December 27, 1942, in Bunker, Missouri, to Emmett and Lillie (Lea) Parker. She was affectionately known by others as Lynn. She spent her early school years attending a one-room schoolhouse before graduating from Bunker High School.

Lynn was a devoted mother, homemaker, and the heart of her family. She was blessed with six children, whom she loved fiercely and unconditionally. Known as a "mama bear", she protected and cared for her family with quite strength, humility, and grace. The love she had for her grandchildren and great-grandchildren was unmatched.

On December 31, 1991, Lynn married the love of her life, Richard Fuhrmann. Their time together, though too short, was filled with deep love and meaningful moments. Richard preceded her in death on April 28, 2000, but the bond they shared remained a treasured part of her life.

Lynn found joy in the simple pleasures such as reading a good book and working crossword puzzles. Most important of all, spending time with her family was something she cherished. Those moments meant so much to her, especially with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

From a young age, Lynn carried deep and steady faith that would guide her throughout her life. She lived her life as a reflection of her faith, portraying the virtues of a Proverbs 31 woman. She loved as Jesus taught, selflessly, faithfully, and without condition. Lynn entered her Heavenly Home on March 17, 2026, at the age of eighty-three years.

Those left behind to treasure her memory include her daughters: Tammy Patterson, Angel Wofford, and Michelle Ritz; sons: Bradley Slightom and Shawn Slightom; brothers: Russell Parker and Bob Parker; sister: Norma Koonce; grandchildren: Jacqueline Kornet, Matisse Kornet, Caitlyn Delaney, Shawn Paul Slightom, Hayley Moetmann, Emmett Slightom, Tara McDowell, Kyleigh Greer, Taylor McDowell, Alison Wolfe, Garrett McDowell, Casey Oliver, Corey Oliver, Charles Ritz, Crystal McDonald, Joshua Bonuchi, and Dustin French; as well as a host of great-grandchildren, cousins, other relatives, and dear friends.

Preceding her in death were her loving husband: Richard Fuhrmann; daughter: Alicia McDonald; parents: Emmett and Lillie (Lea) Parker; brothers: Carl Parker and Donald Radford; sister June Callahan; and granddaughters: Sheena Rae McDonald, Michaela Slightom and Hannah McDowell.

Lynn will be remembered for her gentle spirit, unwavering faith, quite strength, and the deep love she gave so freely. Though naturally introverted and shy, her love spoke volumes through her actions. Her legacy lives on in the family she cherished and the lives she touched. She will be missed and forever remembered by all who knew and loved her.

Funeral Services were held March 21, 2026, in the Wilson Mortuary Salem Chapel with Rick Koonce officiating. Serving as Pallbearers were Shawn Slightom, Jacob Wolfe, Shawn Paul Slightom, Garrett McDowell, Russell Parker, and JD Coleman. Burial was in the Liberty Cemetery, Belle, Missouri.
