“ Hy husband and I only knew Hagen for a short time when he purchased the home across the street from us in Hillsboro, MO. Shortly thereafter we sold ours and moved from the area but in that short time we came to know Hagen as a very friendly, thoughtful and kind person. He was always very attentive and loving to his daughters who lived in the house while attending college. He was just very sweet and seemed to never meet a stranger. We are so very sorry for this incredible loss to his family, friends and his beautiful daughters. May God bring you comfort and watch over you always. -- James & Cindy Raspberry
