“ To all my cousins and their families, I'm so sorry to hear of Aunt Ima Gean's passing. I have fond memories of her, memories of her letting us hang out in the toasty warm house on a cold winter morning when we walked through the woods and caught the school bus up at your place. I used to stop by on occasion when I was down in the area and visit her. It saddens me to think I won't get that opportunity again. I pray that your memories of sharing laughter and good times carry you through this difficult time.
