

James "Jim" Dale Boschert

James "Jim" Dale Boschert was born April 3, 1943 in St. Charles, Missouri to Patrick and Ceila (Kinder) Boschert. He grew up in Lenox, Missouri and graduated from Licking High School. Jim furthered his education with some technical classes.

Jim was united in marriage to the love of his life, Alice M. Homeier, January 19, 1962 in St. Louis, Missouri and together shared fifty-nine years of laughter and memories. Jim and Alice were blessed with two children: Patricia and Jim.

Jim started his working career as an electrician with Nooter Corporation in St. Louis and retired after many dedicated years. After retirement, Jim remained friends with his coworkers and enjoyed several fish fry's together. Jim was a good, honest, hard-working man who took great pride in supporting his family.

Jim was an avid outdoorsman and enjoyed what nature provided. He had a green thumb and planted a garden every year with tomato plants as high as fourteen feet tall. In his early years, Jim liked to deer hunt at the Lenox Family Farm. His fondest moments were spent fishing with his son, especially at the Lake of the Ozarks. Jim loved to go camping with his family at Peaceful Valley Estates in Owensville. Jim was fiercely devoted to his family and happiest when surrounded by those he loved the most. Making memories with his grandchildren was most important to him and he treasured his great-grandchildren.
