“ I was one of the cna's who took care of Mr. James at the hospital. He was such a character when I walked in his room. I even sat in his room a couple times and we prayed together 💙 we was such a sweet soul but he's in the hands of the great lord above

“ Brother Jim and I grew close while a Oak Grove, we both shared a love for Jesus and shared that love often. He and I spent many hours talking about the Gods word and he shared his vast knowledge of the Bible with me as we as others. Unlike some I know he was not a know it all and was always willing to listen and learn from those who were not stuck on themselves. My family and I will miss a dear Brother and friend, but at the same time we are happy he is home with our Lord. See you soon Brother. Skip, Sun, and Jessica
