“ Jamie was my son Jamie Rosenberg’s friend throughout their school career in Warrenton. They played trumpet together in the band. I remember the football players taking off their jerseys at halftime to march with the marching band. Both Jamie’s were a part of that. When they started playing football together they became Crocker and Rosie. I remember Jamie as a happy kid and young man. I remember his smile and laugh, though I haven’t seen him for years. I am so sorry for your loss!
