

Jane Frances (Boedeker) Marshall

October 1, 1950 - December 20, 2023

Jane Frances (Boedeker) Marshall was born October 1, 1950, in St. Louis, Missouri, to Clarence and Dorothy (Wilhelm) Boedeker. She grew up in Florissant, Missouri and graduated with the class of 1966 from St. Thomas Aquinas Mercy High School.

On February 12, 1971, Jane was united in marriage to the love of her life and best friend, Robert Ward Marshall. They shared fifty-two years of lasting marriage and memories together. Jane and Robert were blessed with two wonderful children: Dorrie and David.

Throughout her working career, Jane worked various customer service jobs. She retired from the Internal Revenue Service, or as she would call it, the Department of Agriculture, after many years of dedication.

Jane was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother. She truly cherished spending time with her family, including her siblings. Spending time and making memories with her four precious grandchildren brought her great joy.

In her spare time, Jane enjoyed gardening, tending to her irises, picking blackberries, and watching the cardinals in her yard. She was a talented cake decorator and for several years ran her small side business, Jane's Decorated Cakes.

The most important thing Jane held close to her heart was her Catholic Faith and being a parishioner of Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Salem, Missouri. Jane previously attended Our Lady of Fatima Church in Florissant, Missouri until she relocated to Salem in 1976.

Jane entered into eternal rest December 20, 2023, at the age of seventy-three years, surrounded by her loving family at her home in Sligo, Missouri. Those left behind to treasure her memory include her loving husband: Bob Marshall of Sligo, MO; children: Dorrie Meyer of St. Louis, MO and David Marshall and wife Stephanie of Pleasant Hill, MO; grandchildren: Blake, Steel, Colt, and Scout; siblings: Judy Ambrose and husband Anthony, Joan Baker and husband David, Claire Boedeker and Jeff; and Tom Boedeker; as well as several nieces, nephews, extended family, and dear friends.

Preceding her in death, parents: Clarence and Dorothy Boedeker.

To know Jane was to love Jane. She was kind, genuine, thoughtful, and had a heart of gold. She was always thinking about others first and even strangers benefited from her thoughtfulness. Her huge heart and smiling face will be forever missed by those who loved her most.

Funeral Mass for Jane Frances (Boedeker) Marshall was held Wednesday, December 27, 2023, at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church with Father Jose Antoney Thundathil officiating. Burial was in the Sligo Cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of Wilson Mortuary of Salem, Missouri.

“ Janie was such a beautiful person inside and out! My favorite memory with Jane is when she would come up and spend the night at my house. We would play cards until 2 am! Of course, she almost always beat me. We would talk all night while we played. Mostly about our families. She loved them all so much. She knew so much about nature. I was constantly sending her pictures of flowers and plants, and she could tell me all about them! I loved her so much and will truly miss her. Rest in peace Janie.

“ I had the fortune of becoming friends with Jane throughout her treatment, We shared long conversations about our families, hobbies, picking berries, birds, the history of the steel industry at Sligo, world news, and many other topics. Jane was a loving Wife and Mother, she enjoyed spending time with her family including her siblings. I could tell you all meant the world to her. I also know she was one of the kindest people with a heart of gold! She appreciated her friendships and enjoyed playing card with all of you. Many times scheduled her treatments so she wouldn't miss the joy that you all brought to her, with your visits to play cards and to visit. She knew she was loved deeply. I will miss her always smiling face. Her huge heart. Her sharp mind. Her hugs! I'm praying for comfort for you all and sending you love.

While Jane's husband Bob is my "3rd cousin," we did not get to see them often, but remember wonderful Marshall family gatherings with his parents, Rob and Lil, and his grandmother Mary Ward Marshall. I will always remember Jane's thoughtfulness, love of her family, and her smile. Our love to you Bob, Dorrie, David, and family.
