

Jeffrey Alan Schrock

November 13, 2007 - January 6, 2024

Jeffrey Alan Schrock, beloved son of Paul and Hannah (Wickey) Schrock was born on November 13, 2007, at Marion, Michigan. He peacefully passed away surrounded by his loving family and friends at Barnes Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri, on January 6, 2024, at the age of sixteen years, one month, and twenty-four days.

He leaves to morning his sorrowing parents, three brothers and three sisters: Grace Ann, Justin Paul, Jason Lamar, Jeremy David, RaMiah Jolynn, and Rhianna Jeann. He will also be missed by his paternal grandparents, Moses and Eva Schrock of Ethel, MO and maternal grandparents, Ruben and Carolyn Wickey of Heflin, AL, and a host of uncles, aunts, and cousins.

In November of 2019, Jeffrey was diagnosed with Ewing Sarcoma and after a four-year battle with cancer he was relieved of his sufferings. Jeffrey attended Salem Christian Brotherhood and committed his life to Jesus in March of 2023.

Jeffrey loved the outdoors, looking for arrowheads, hunting, and fishing, he also enjoyed building rustic furniture in the shop with his dad and brothers. His last project was building a log cabin bird feeder for a Nature Friend contest.

Jeffrey left a wonderful testimony of being at peace with God and had a desire to leave his suffering body behind and go be with Jesus. He told one of his nurses, "I actually kind of enjoy dying".

Funeral Services for Jeffrey Alan Schrock were held Wednesday, January 10, 2024, at New Harmony Church with Eli Mast, Marion Hershberger, JD Coblentz, Emanuel Miller officiating. Serving as Pallbearers were Nicolas Schrock, Jacob Stutzman, Kevin Schrock, Jotham Waight, Caleb Schrock, and Duane Yoder. Burial was in the Salem Christian Brotherhood Cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of Wilson Mortuary of Salem, Missouri.
