“ Jill was such a fun person. Have known her most of my life. Her and Linda Robert's let me stay with them when I was 16. They were so good to me I have never forgotten that. Her laugh was great, her smile just being around her made your day. RIP my friend.

“ Dear Elliott and Smith families, My family and I are so sorry for your loss. I only saw Jill a few times in the last few years, but she always had a beautiful smile that lit up a room and a contagious laugh. Jill was one of the easiest friends I ever made. I grew up living by Jill and my husband and sisters went to school with her. Jill and I shared the same uncle. She will be missed by all who were fortunate to have met her. You all are in our thoughts. With our deepest sympathy,
Gina Toman Boze and family
