Kenny was the most generous and caring person I ever met. He always amazed me how he was always ready to help anyone and everyone. He'd drop everything to help someone that asked him. He could make anyone that was having a bad day feel better by how he just loved life and was always happy. He loved everyone and made everyone feel special. If everyone could just be a little like Kenny the world would be a better place.

I loved his sense of humor and he could lighten the mood in any situation.

He was such a good man, one of a kind!!!

I'm praying for Wilma and Laken, and thankful they got the time and memories they had with him.
