“ To Larry’s family; sorry it took so long to respond but I lost contact with him some time ago. First I want it known Larry was one of the funniest guys I knew. with his quick wit and personality. I went to high school with him and went in service about the same time. I bowled in league with Larry and downed a few brewskis also. He was a very kind soul and I even let him cut my hair over the years. You will be missed Larry and RIP. Your friend Lee Johnson

“ Steve remembers Larry's occasional boyhood weekends at Hobson. Debra remembers Larry's home area, Florissant, when her family lived there for years (Elm Grove; Katz; Art's; Florland; Campion). Both of us appreciate Larry's concern for Faye when he went overseas. Steve & Debra Baird
