“ Laurel was one of the sweetest young ladies it has ever been my pleasure to meet. She was the clinic nurse at our place of business. She was the epitome of what a nurse should be: caring, knowledgeable, and supportive. She became a friend along the way and even after she moved we stayed in touch. What a wonderful person! Her smile would light a room, and if you happened to be under the weather, just being around her would make you feel better. We were blessed to have known her, if but a short time. All of my condolences to the family, especially Andy and Mia Grace.
