Logan Kaine Barton was born May 26, 1991 in Rolla, Missouri to James Barton and Laura Harris and passed away on November 18, 2018 at the age of twenty-seven years.

Logan grew up in Salem and Steelville, Missouri. Logan had been employed as a CNA, worked at a sawmill, a Jack-in-the-Box, and babysat for friends. He loved spending time with his family and especially his son, and loved his grandma immensely. Logan could make anyone's day better. He was a gamer and loved life. Logan enjoyed going to the river, fishing, and sitting around a bonfire talking and laughing with friends, BBQ's and arguing who was best at grilling with his brother. Logan had a very special friendship with Amy and loved having coffee with her when they had the chance. He had a special bond with his brother, Zachary and they did everything together.

Logan was preceded in death by his father, James Barton; brother, Zachary Barton; maternal grandfather, Jack Harris; paternal grandparents, J.D. and Wilma Barton.

He is survived by his wife, Angelica Barton of Salem, MO; mother, Laura Harris of Salem, MO; son, Levi Gamblin of Salem, MO; sister, Abigail Barton of Salem, MO; maternal grandmother, Janet Harris of Salem, MO; and several aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ Logan and Zach were my first cousins. We grew up fighting like cats and dogs. Man we could make a argument out of anything when we were kids. However, as adults we bonded over shared experiences. He came and visited for the weekend back in March and I made him chicken and dumplings. I'll be forever grateful for that weekend. I love and miss you Logie.
