Loretta Marie (Helms) Marrill was born May 18, 1953, to Harold and Marcella (Fowler) Helms. She grew up and attended school in Steelville, Missouri. Loretta started working at a young age and was a talented seamstress for many years.

Loretta was all about family; her children and grandchildren were her world. She loved having her son, Charles, cook on the barbeque grill. Her and her siblings took annual trips together, although she missed the last one to Branson, she looked forward to them every year.

Loretta enjoyed keeping herself moving and really liked attending the exercise class at the Housing Authority. Most of all she loved the Lord, going to church, attending revivals, praying and gospel singings. Loretta has been a member of Salem Full Gospel Church for many years.

“ I am so blessed to be a part of my cousin's Loretta life. My mind goes back to growing up with her sharing laughs, tears, and just hanging out at her house just being kids. I will cherish all the times we got to be together in our adult life. Some of my fondest memories was going to church seeing her get blessed by God. I will miss her so much, but this is not good-bye. It is, I will see you again where we will never be separated again but walking on the streets of Gold in that City that Jesus Christ went to prepare for all of those that loves Him. Love you so much, until we meet again. Cousin Larry!
