

Lorraine Denese (Craig) Ziegler

July 18, 1951 - August 5, 2023

In Memory of Lorraine Zeigler written by her loving husband Jeff

Scientists tell us that as much as 90% of the universe is beyond the perception of our senses. Scripture tells us that those who believe in the unseen are blessed. And the much loved 23rd Psalm says, "Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thou art with me."

Yet even with such assurances the loss brings pain - the pain of separation and longing to be together again. To all who loved Lorraine the joy of reunion is near. Our physical lives are but an instant in eternity - important but brief. For now memories will have to suffice.

We left New York City and moved to Salem about thirty years ago. We bought an eighty acre farm but it was more than we could manage so we sold it and moved into town. We have always been happy with our decision to leave the big city behind and were so pleased with the warmth and friendliness of the good folks who live here.

Lorraine was a calligraphic artist and graphic designer and we set up a successful business. We met many wonderful people and accomplished what others said was "too risky" - a new life, in a new place, and a new livelihood. Over the years in Salem our lives have been peaceful and productive. So our thanks to all for your help and support.

“ My sister, I heart is broken. I know you are at peace and are not in pain. I will hold dear memories of you. Your upbeat attitude and your love and ability to sew and to draw was amazing. I am so proud of my sister. Your love and your beautiful smile will stay in my heart forever. Until we meet again sis, just remember I love you. Sindee
