

Loubell Vaneta (Black) Canterbury

April 7, 1939 - May 9, 2025

Loubell Vaneta Canterbury (Black), 86, of Clarkston, Michigan, passed away peacefully on May 9, 2025, at her home, with family at her side. She was born April 7, 1939, in St. Louis, Missouri.

She worked as a Human Resources Manager at several companies in the Washington, D.C area before retiring. She was an active member and volunteer at the Tyger River Presbyterian Church in Reidville, South Carolina and was active in the Spartanburg Red Hat Ladies society and various other civic groups. In her spare time, she enjoyed quilting, gardening, and hosting elaborate dinner parties for family and friends. Ms. Canterbury attended Salem High School in Salem, Missouri.

Loubell is survived by her sons Michael Drown of St. Louis, Missouri and Russell Drown of Clarkston, Michigan, as well as Eric Fleming and Celli Geyer, the children of her partner of 35 years, Michael Fleming, who passed away in 2023.

Ms. Canterbury also is survived by her nieces Cheryl Carls and Ginny Schlais and nephews Terry and David Black, and will be missed by countless friends in St. Louis, Missouri, the Washington D.C. area and Spartanburg, South Carolina as well as other cities across the country.

She will be forever missed by those who loved her most.

Funeral Services for Loubell Vaneta (Black) Canterbury were held Wednesday, May 14, 2025, in the Wilson Mortuary Salem Chapel with Pastor Chris Hendrix officiating. Song selection played was "Amazing Grace". Serving as Pallbearers were David Black, Terry Black, Russell Drown, Michael Drown, Doug Beuc, Ernie Stumbo, and Tobin Miller. Burial was in the North Lawn Cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of Wilson Mortuary of Salem, Missouri.
