Margaret was a loving and supportive wife and mother who worked hard to help provide for her family. During her working years, she was employed with several factories to include Play-Craft Boats and Lowe Boats. Margaret and Don owned and operated Country Roads Antique Store for many years.

Margaret took great satisfaction in cooking for her family and enjoyed canning. She liked spending time outdoors and could be found out and about ginseng hunting.

Margaret was a lady of great faith and longtime member of New Friendship Baptist Church. She enjoyed reading her Bible and singing in church along with her brother Larry. Most important to Margaret was her family. She valued the time spent with them and treasured the memories made together, especially with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

“ Sincere sympathy Don and all the family .
May you be comforted by Gods tender mercy

Margaret I will have to say was probably the most loved cousin in all the family, everyone loved and appreciated her tenderness , soft voice , and love she showed all of us .

I remember years of being around her and helping with the children from time to time and never did I ever hear a swear word from her , maybe Gosh darn it, Doggone it, but I never knew her to swear .
Bless her heart and I pray she is comforted now and not suffering anymore ..

Love you so much Margaret and family
