

Mary "Linda" (Posey) Hobson

December 22, 1949 - November 7, 2025

Mary, affectionately known by her middle name, Linda, was the daughter of James and Velma (Sanders) Posey. She was born on December 22, 1949, in Portageville, Missouri, where she grew up. Linda graduated in 1967 from Portageville High School.

On May 17, 1970, Linda was united in marriage to the love of her life, Wilmer Hobson. They were blessed with three children: Crystal, Eddie, and Jimmy. She was endlessly proud of their fifty-five years together and the family they created.

Linda lived a life defined by love, kindness, and quiet strength. She was the heart of her family and found joy in life's simple moments. Her greatest joys and proudest achievements were her children and grandchildren. She enjoyed capturing memories and creating scrapbooks.

Although Linda primarily focused on her home as a homemaker, devoted wife, and dedicated mother, her role as a Certified Nurse Assistant didn't go unnoticed. Her kindness, patience, and gentle spirit made her a comfort to those she cared for. She truly loved caring for others.

Linda attended Rock Springs Baptist Church when she was able. Her faith in the Lord was a source of great strength throughout her life. Her love, laughter, and warmth will continue to live on through her family and the many lives she has touched along the way.

Linda entered eternal rest November 7, 2025, in Salem, Missouri, at the age of seventy-five years. She is survived by her loving husband: Wilmer Hobson of Salem, MO; daughter: Crystal Parsons and Bill of Salem, MO; sons: Eddie Hobson and wife Trish of Salem, MO and Jimmy Hobson of Salem, MO; many grandchildren and great-grandchildren; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

Preceding her in death were her parents: James and Velma (Sanders) Posey; and siblings: Janie Fout, Bill Posey, and Deanie Duncan.

Linda committed herself wholeheartedly to her family and friends, always going above and beyond for those she loved. She will be forever missed but never forgotten.
