

Myrna Roselle (Stacy) Faulkner

May 17, 1935 - May 7, 2025

Myrna Roselle (Stacy) Faulkner was born May 17, 1935, in Gladden, Missouri. She was the daughter of Elva “Elvie” and Juanita May (Smith) Stacy. As a young adult, her adventurous spirit led her to hitchhike to Washington state, where she spent several years before moving back to Salem, Missouri.

Myrna was blessed with three children: James, Debbie, and Ruth Ann. She cherished her role as a mother and homemaker. Her grandchildren and great-grandchildren were the center of her world, bringing her immeasurable joy. Her bond with her siblings was also deeply important. She enjoyed family gatherings, always ensuring everyone felt loved and appreciated.

Myrna had a love for classic Westerns and the music of Elvis Presley. She enjoyed antique shopping and had an eye for stylish purses and costume jewelry, the gaudier, the better! She also took great pride in her beautifully painted fingernails.

Her later years were marked by contentment and connection. She found great happiness living with her brother Archie and Janet. She then moved into an ISL, where she formed close friendships with fellow residents. Her time at the adult activity center brought her some of the happiest moments of her life.

Myrna was excited to go see Jesus and entered her Heavenly home May 7, 2025, in Salem, Missouri, at the age of eighty-nine years. Preceding her in death were her daughter: Ruth Ann Richardson; parents: Elvie and Juanita Stacy; brothers: Jerry and Archie Stacy; and grandson: Brian Firestine.

Despite facing challenges in her younger years, Myrna maintained an unwavering spirit and a deeply compassionate heart.
