Noel Edward Blackwell was born August 24, 1935 in Salem, Missouri and was the only child of Glen Edward and Ethel Louartie (Pidcock) Blackwell. He grew up in Salem and graduated with the class of 1953 from Salem High School.

Noel met his sweetheart, Linda Lee Henson, on a blind date through a mutual friend. The two fell in love and were united in marriage May 31, 1959 in Sullivan, Missouri. Noel and Linda were blessed with two sons: Wade and Curtis.

Noel enlisted into the Army National Guard in January of 1954 and served his country faithfully until his honorable discharge in 1963. He took great pride in working hard and providing for his family. Noel was a dedicated employee for McDonnell Aircraft and retired from McDonnell Douglas after many years.

Truly an outdoorsman, Noel liked hunting, fishing, and spending time at the family farm near Salem. He was a man of faith and member of Oak Grove Baptist Church. Noel enjoyed attending when he was able and loved to worship and fellowship with others.

Noel was a devoted husband, supporting father, loving grandfather, and doting great-grandfather. Making memories with his family was most important to him. He cherished time with his grandchildren and treasured his great-
