“ Pam had many talents over the years which included being an EMT, CNA, Med Tech, owning a plant nursery. She wrote and sang songs. She had a beautiful voice. She wrote stories that would come alive when you read them. Pam was a wonderful cook. She was known for her homemade rolls, shrimp salad, and cheeseball. She was a scratch cook, never cooked anything out of a box. Pam grew and canned her own pickles & tomatoes. She made the best fresh salsa I have ever ate. She believed in and had long lasting friendships. Pam was proud of her kids and grandkids. She loved them dearly. I am going to miss you sister!!!!

“ Pam was a very talented, self-taught, strong woman. She could grow anything and was a fantastic cook! We shared many things of life, fought at time like cats, but loved the other with a deep love and always had each other's back. She is my sister! And I will miss her always!

Aunt Pam, I will always remember the moment I heard you sing (practicing for mom's funeral) and I heard your voice. It sounded so much like mom's and I realized I had never heard you sing before. I hope you are singing with your sisters now. Rest in peace. LaDonna
