Paul was my first cousin and I remember when he and Glen would come to visit in summer vacation and yes, he always had a smile and loved to tease me sometimes I didn't understand what he meant and being young I would get scared. One time he told me he was going to "skin a cat" and I thought he was going to skin one of my cats" I will miss him May he rest in Peace.

Paul was married to my cousin Shirley. They were very kind to my parents Charlie and Geneva Albin. We visited Paul and Shirley at their home when they had their dogs and were feeding fish in their pond. Paul was a very thoughtful person. He and Shirley worked hard but always had time to share a smile. Paul will be missed by many.

“ Uncle Paul was a young Marine, visiting our house in California. My brothers and I were all under the age of 5. Uncle Paul taught us the 'proper ' wat to to brush our teeth because our mom, his sister, didn't teach us right! Of course we immediately went to tattle on him! He got a huge kick out of it.
