

Robert "Bob" J. Graham

March 14, 1941 - June 30, 2022

Robert "Bob" J. Graham was born March 14, 1941, in St. Louis, Missouri to Ralph B. and Jesse W. (Williams) Graham, and departed this life June 30, 2022, in Salem, Missouri at the age of eighty-one years.

Bob is survived by his sister: Susan High; stepsister: Donna Sattley; nephew: Greg High and wife Lisa; niece: Sherri Rahn and husband Mark; extended family and dear friends. Preceding him in death, parents: Ralph and Jesse Graham and stepbrother: Andrew Graham.

Bob was an avid outdoorsman who loved the time he spent in Shannon County over the years. The friendships he created were his greatest treasure. He was a leader in the Timber Volunteer Fire Department and Pilgrims Rest cemetery as his contribution back to the community he loved. He coached and mentored numerous people through work advancement or business operations. He was a true servant leader that wanted to help others succeed.

Bob's request was to not have flowers or donations for his funeral. The family asks that you simply reflect on the ways Bob positively impacted your life and in turn that you help those around you.

Graveside Services for Robert "Bob" J. Graham were held Saturday, July 2, 2022, at the Pilgrim's Rest Cemetery with Pastor Nate Fulk officiating.

Arrangements are under the direction and care of Wilson Mortuary of Salem, Missouri.
