

Roger Lee Brown

August 18, 1961 - February 24, 2026

Roger Lee Brown, 64, of Boss, Missouri, passed peacefully in his sleep on Tuesday, February 24, 2026. He was born on August 18, 1961, to the late Janet (Lowery) Brown and Stanley Roger Brown. Originally from Nebo, Kentucky, Roger lived a life marked by independence, simplicity, and a deep love for nature.

Roger is survived by his two children, Michelle Moore of Robertsdale, Alabama, and James Brown of Rochester, New York; five grandchildren, Langdon Moore, Hunter Moore, Colton Moore, Rocky Adcock Jr., and Goldie Brown; and two great-grandsons, Weston Moore and Preston Moore.

Roger kept his circle small, cherishing time spent with family and a few close friends. Those who knew him remember his adventurous spirit in his younger years. As he grew older, he found peace in quiet moments, enjoying nature, riding his four-wheeler, spending time at his favorite river spot, and relaxing at home in the company of his beloved cats. Many people will also remember Roger as one of the best mechanics around, always willing to lend his skills and knowledge to others.

In honoring Roger's wishes, there will be no formal services. He will be cremated, and his ashes will be spread in the places he loved. Roger was deeply loved and will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Tribute Wall

SH

“ Nathan and I thought a lot of Roger , haven't been able to see much of him in the last few years ... but he was a great friend ❤️

Sara Hollis - February 25 at 07:08 PM

SH

So saddened to hear this news. I had not seen Cousin Roger in many years and with only memories of him r him from my childhood days when he lived close by. He was always a kind soul and was fun to be around. RIP dear cousin.

Scott Holmes - February 26 at 09:48 AM