

Roger Lee Gott

September 3, 1955 - January 31, 2026

Roger Lee Gott was born on September 3, 1955, in Ava, Missouri. He was the youngest of two sons born to Wayne and Betty Ruth (Fleetwood) Gott. Roger was raised in Salem, Missouri and graduated from Salem High School in 1973. He later earned a bachelor's degree in business from Southwest Missouri State University in 1977.

Roger was the devoted father of two children, Lindsey and Nathan. He thoroughly enjoyed his role being a grandfather to Darci, Ruby, Tate, and Tucker. He adored Laura Parker and treasured the time they shared together. Family and friends were central to Roger's life, and he enjoyed the memories made with them, especially his close friends Carl and Frankie Eichenberger, Tom and Connie Rushing, and Brian and Amy Cooley. Roger never knew a stranger and always enjoyed meeting new people and sharing stories with them.

Roger served as President of Town & Country Bank, beginning his career in the banking industry in 1983 while working alongside his father. During their daily travels to Bourbon, Roger gained invaluable insight and wisdom from Wayne—lessons that guided him throughout his professional life. He found genuine fulfillment in his work, cared deeply for his employees, and never wished to retire.

In addition to his banking career, Roger was a co-owner and board member of Town & Country Supermarkets.

Roger was known for his warm personality and enjoyment of life. He found pleasure in jet boating on the Current River, side-by-side rides, vacationing on Captiva Island, and listening to music. He was an enthusiastic sports fan, and especially loved attending St. Louis Cardinals baseball games. He was so proud of watching his son Nathan play high school sports and never missed a game. Roger also participated in sports throughout his life at both school and in the Salem community. Roger enjoyed deer and turkey hunting with his friends and especially his visits to deer camp.

Roger was a man of strong faith and a longtime member of Salem First Baptist Church.

Roger Lee Gott passed away on January 31, 2026, in St. Louis, Missouri, at the age of seventy. He is remembered by a loving family, dear friends, and a grateful community who will long cherish the time they shared with him.

Roger is survived by his loving children: Lindsey de Greck and husband Tom of St. Louis, MO and Nathan Gott and wife Macie of Rolla, MO; his love: Laura Parker of Salem, MO; granddaughters: Darci and Ruby de Greck of St. Louis, MO; grandsons: Tate and Tucker Gott of Rolla, MO; niece: Amber Polizzi and husband Joe of Rolla, MO; great-nieces: Maria and Lydia Polizzi; as well as aunts, cousins, extended family, and friends.

Preceding him in death were his parents: Wayne and Betty (Fleetwood) Gott; and his brother: Dennis Gott.

Roger made a positive impact on the people around him and his kindness and generosity shined. His life has made a tremendous impact on the communities he served. He will be deeply missed, but his legacy will live on in those who loved him most.

Memorial Contributions may be made in memory of Roger to the LovePack Backpack Program or Grace Harbor and left with Wilson Mortuary. Memorial Envelopes will be available.

“ How will we ever replace the effervescent personality of Rodger? I will always remember the Harley Davidsons parked under our villas in Captiva on our first stay at Donax. As we pulled in, I was wondering who in the heck was staying next-door. The next thing I knew everybody was coming over for drinks at our villa. They all were so much fun and so delightful. He certainly was larger than life.

*This year while staying in Captiva, I will look down the road and hope to see Rodger pulling up in his Harley. We will miss you.

“ I’m truly heartbroken to hear of Roger’s passing. I’ve know him for 45 plus years, pretty much my entire career. We grew up in this industry together. He always treated me with dignity and respect and proved to be a principled man. His sense of humor was legendary and he always brightened the spirits of those around him. We extend our deepest sympathies to the Gott family and pray for God’s presence and comfort throughout this painful loss.

“ Dear Gott family and loved ones,

To say we are sorry doesn't seem like enough. Roger loved Captiva, and it loved him back. His larger-than-life personality, smile, and soul endeared him to many Island establishments, organizations, and, most importantly, to the individuals here.

To say he will be missed is a gross understatement; Captiva will not be the same without him. Please accept our deepest and most heartfelt condolences during this incredibly difficult time.

Sincerely,

The Kingfisher Family

“ Roger treated everyone he met with genuine kindness. He was a great friend and fun loving guy who had a rare gift for making people feel seen. He went out of his way to meet others, learn their stories, and treat everyone with warm and kindness .
Nothing lit him up more than talking about his children-they meant the world to him. He absolutely adored Laura and they together embraced life to the fullest!
Roger will be deeply missed by the Captiva Island community and everyone who was lucky enough to know him. His kindness , laughter and love will live on in the many lives he touched
Forever in our hearts my friend. Love Georgie

“ So sorry to hear of Roger's passing. We go way back to high school days when Willow played Salem in basketball. After graduation, we both ended up going to SMSU, now MSU. We had a PE class together and his brother Dennis recruited us to play on his intramural basketball team. After college, we went back to our respective hometowns but kept in touch through the years. We both enjoyed flying and eventually ended up in the banking world. I hadn't seen Roger for several years but will always cherish the good times we had. RIP old friend.

“ Roger Gott was a dear friend of my late brother, Danny Miller, when they were high school classmates. Roger was a loyal friend of Danny's. The last time I saw Roger was at Danny's memorial service in 2021.

He was mourning the loss of his late brother Dennis at the time. As I sit here today thinking of these fine men who made multiple contributions to the communities that they lived in and served I am so sad for the loss they represented in so many ways to their communities. I am so sad for not only their loss to those that loved them but for the loss that the communities they lived in have suffered.

All wonderful men gone too soon.

“ Roger was one of the good ones. I started coming to the Salem area Turkey hunting and deer hunting back in 76, once I met Roger he would always greet me by name. Being from stl, sometimes people take a disliking to you. Not Roger he treated me like I was a local. Moving to Salem was influenced by him and other dear friends. He will be truly missed by all of us, he will leave a huge hole in our community. My love and prayers to his family. Roger's legacy is a thriving business and the memories of his smiling face, a firm handshake, and a warm greeting. Until I see you in the new system my friend.
