“ Vickie & Family: So very sorry for your loss! Ron was truly a special guy. He faithfully served the Lord as a deacon for many years here at Friendship, and oh, what a bass voice he had. It was a thrill to listen to him sing. We know that in the midst of his passing on to be with the Lord, the Lord will provide you with the grace and strength for each day. May the Lord bless and keep you in His care!

“ We had a blast growing up together @ Oak Grove Baptist Church. Always enjoyed going home with Ron & Mike after church to see what we could get into. Fond memories were made, never be forgotten.

Mike, both our little brothers are singing bass in the Heavenly Choir, along with the alto of our Mothers. Someday, we too will join that crew. What a joyous time that will be. I can't sign off without letting Paul know the through the guidance of his Dad, Bro. Harry, he helped everyone of us grow as young Christians.

Vickie and Family, you all have our deepest sympathy & Prayers of comfort to you all.

May God watch over you all & keep you all safe.
