“ Oh brother where do I even begin. So many wonderful memories of us. Me telling mom when you called me names and for smoking lol. Telling you I was going to tell mom if you didn't let me go with you and Gary Garrison. Him slamming my finger in the truck door and you laughing at me. So many more. I'll miss our brother sister time as you called it when we went riding back roads. I'll miss you dancing with me. We have had our spats but always worked through them. I'll always cherish our memories. You called me on my birthday and sang to me. I love you beyond measure and miss you terribly. I know you're with mom and dad and sheena now and no longer in pain. Fly high brother until I see you again. I love you.
