“ Sally was my cousin, married to my husband's best friend. We danced away our Saturday nights at the Wagon Wheel Roller Rink in Casper, Wyoming. Roger and Sally, Dick and I vacationed together through Yellowstone Park, Camped out, went to Denver on $5.00 and a credit card. Toured the Black Hills and ever Saturday night we got together to play cards. Sally was always very vocal and her voice did carry, so being around her was never dull. Her smile was infectious and her temper waswhat can I say...it was Sally. Sally was always honest with her opinions, likes and dislikes and that's what made her such a special individual. Sally, make the guys behave until I get there. I will miss you.
