“ Shannon was a fun loving uncle to my 2 boys, Garret (who he called “G Money”) and Aidan (Aidy-cent). There were always lots of laughs when he was around and great food. My deepest sympathies to Johnny, Joey and all who knew and loved Shannon. He was a blessing lost too soon.

My heart is breaking for Joey and Johnny and all of his friends . Linda was pregnant with Shannon the same time I pregnant with Kim , We used to play a game of who would deliver first and yes it was Linda Shannon was born on May 18th and Kim came on the 19th Kim and Shannon have been life long friends. I think it was their ninth birthday that Linda and I planned a birthday party for them in our basement we were living on Forest Hill drive then , I have so many pictures of that event hope to share them at Shannon's celebration of life. 🙏🙏🙏

“ Shannon was one of the brightest lights that I have ever known. While there are many sweet and happy memories, my two favorites are of him making mozzarella cheese sticks for my baby girl at Pasta Express in Springfield, when she was just a toddler and loudly reminding the streets of Chicago that the Blues were NHL champs. His heart and smile will be missed. Love. thoughts and continuing prayers go to his beautiful family. Thanks for sharing him.
