“ I don't know when Shirley started hanging around with my Mom, Barbara Hawn, but the two of them were as thick as thieves around 2000's. They loved to talk, eat, and travel around together. Shirley put a new spark in Mom's life and was so much fun to be around. My condolences to the family. I loved being with her and wish I would have told her many times more how much she meant to our family. I am sorry for your loss of such of firecracker of a woman! Love, Diane Hawn....
