Terry was baptized and was a member of Salem Church of Christ and attended Boss Assembly of God Church for several years. Terry and his father, Bob, owned Hedrick's Sawmill, which was operated by father and son only. Once it sold they purchased a farm in Boss and after Bob's passing, the farm was passed on to Terry. Most importantly, he loved spending time with his family and watching his grandchildren, Raylen and Colten, grow. He also loved Christmas. Terry bought red roses for his loved ones every holiday, never mattered what holiday. His favorite color was red and he was very proud to own his dream truck.
