“ *We will miss the countless penny poker/yahtzee games around the table along with all of the funny stories and bouts of laughter that included (fart jokes, pretzel cigars, oldies music and good natured pranks). We will think of you each time we see sci-fi movies like your favorites Avatar and Aliens. You've left us with so many fun memories that we will cherish each one until we meet again. Rest easy and God Bless Terry. We love you,
