“ My loving, caring, full of grace and mercy sister went to be with the LORD. She was always there for me. We talked about what was important. GOD, family and country. She was quick to forgive, slow to anger, and positive in her thoughts. her greatest treasures were her husband, daughter, and grandchildren. She talked about Herb, Tiffany and Mike, Dillon, Peyton, Everly and Charli every time we talked. She loved them so much. I don't recall her ever having said a bad word about anyone. She was a moral inspiration and dearest sister to me. I loved to here her laugh. She was a beautiful person in every way. Dedicated to her Faith, beliefs, family and Parish. I will celebrate with her, rejoice with her and spend eternity in heaven with her. Her Spirit lives on in all those she blessed with her presence. My heart cry's for my loss of her earthy presence. My love, prayers and hope are with all of her loved ones as we grieve together over a tremendous loss of such an incredible sister, wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Grace, Peace, Love and Mercy.
