“ I just happened to read Troy’s obituary and felt compelled to write. He sounds like my kind of guy! I’m only 3 years older than him. It is sad to lose a loved one in death at any age, sickness, accidents and death are cruel heartbreaks and nothing short of tragic. You have my deepest sympathy for your tragic loss!

It is my hope that some thoughts from the Bible will bring you some hope, comfort and peace at this time, and in the future.

It was never God's intention that anyone should die. When He put Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, He also put before them the prospect of living forever, happy, and in good health. (Genesis 1:28)

Our Creator has not given up on that original plan—perfect life on paradise earth—even though Satan, Adam and Eve messed up. (Isaiah 55:10-11)

The Bible tells us that it is Satan who is responsible for all deaths, and not God as some would tell us. (Hebrews 2:14)

The only-begotten Son of God, Jesus Christ, came to ransom us from death and to undo or reverse all the works of the Devil. (1 John 3:8)

Remember Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me will live though he dies." (John 11:25)

With Jesus Christ enthroned as King of God's Kingdom, resurrection of the dead - including Troy - and a restoration of paradise on earth, are assured!

It is my hope that until that time of reunion comes, you will find hope, comfort and peace in these promises from God.

*Sincerely yours,
Martin Grant*
