“ My deepest sympathy to you, Pam, Kendall, Christie, Kyle, and Courtney. Although I have not seen you all since you moved from Michigan, you are all in our Elo family pictures.

Pam's special kindness during our family's time of need has always held a special place in our hearts.

Forever in our memories you all remain especially during this time of great loss as you all carry on without your husband and father and for the grands as well.

Our thoughts are with you all.

“ My cousin/partner in crime as a young kid living in a suburb of Detroit.

“Stevie” and his parents lived next door for a time during those years. Riding bikes, trick-or-treating, hide and go seek.

Meeting up again as adults when I, once again lived on that same Detroit suburb street, as Pam became a part of his life for keeps.

Visiting them in Texas, then neighbors again in Elo MI, both of us married with children sharing kids birthday parties.

Life has its twists and turns for us all.

I will always remember my pal as we sat on the steps of his porch sharing a Faygo Red-pop as we sipped our shots out of the cap.

So long for now cousin Steve.

Until we meet again.
