

William "Bill" LeRoy Aden

May 21, 1969 - September 20, 2021

William "Bill" LeRoy Aden was born May 21, 1969 in Washington, Missouri to LeRoy and Judy. He grew up in St. James and graduated with the Class of 1987. Bill started his working career in the sawmills. He worked in Bourbon at Simmerly Timber for seventeen years before moving to Salem and working for Ozark Shavings.

Bill was united in marriage to Delores "Dee" Grimm on December 18, 2003 in Union, Missouri and together shared five children: Kevin, Michael, Samuel, Roni, and Stephanie. Bill was a devoted husband and dedicated father. His family was most important to him and he cherished the memories made with his grandchildren.

Bill was an avid outdoorsman and "Trout King". He enjoyed fishing at Montauk, Meramec Springs, and Bennett Springs. He loved tinkering on cars and was known as the "backyard mechanic", he was the go-to for all his kids. Bill was a man of faith and attended C Highway Full Gospel.

Bill departed this life September 20, 2021 in Salem, Missouri at the age of fifty-two years. He leaves behind to cherish his memory, his loving wife: Dee Aden; sons: Kevin Aden and wife Anna and Michael Dockery and wife Courtney; daughters: Roni Dockery and wife Kristie Kelley and Stephanie Brake and husband Matthew; nine granddaughters and one grandson; extended family and dear friends.

Preceding him in death, son: Samuel Dockery; mother: Judy Duncan; stepmother: Pat Aden.

Bill will be remembered for his joking nature, he was fun to be around, and will be deeply missed.

“ *Bill was a good son in law. He gave me a grandson.
He was always ready to help when asked.
Prayers to his family.*
